

BEACH CAMP 2008

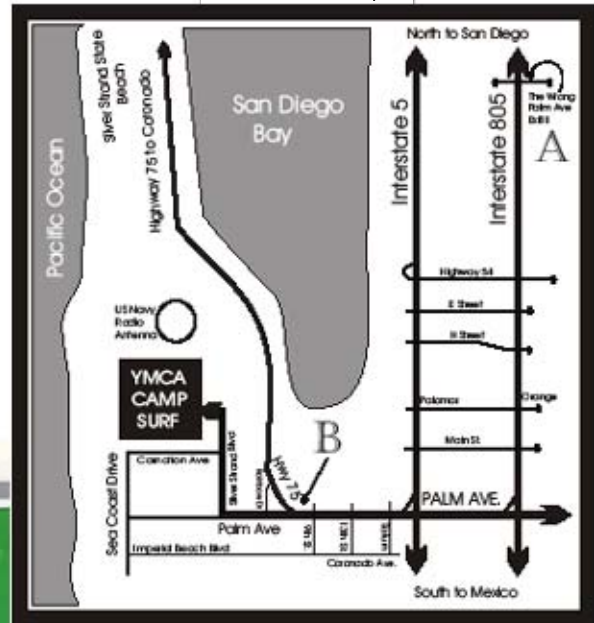

Located in Imperial Beach
at the YMCA Camp Surf.

106 Carnation Ave. or 560 Silver Strand Blvd.
Imperial Beach, Ca 91932
(Location entrance will be one of the two)

Arrival Information:

Last year when we got here at 3:30pm there was already a line of cars waiting and we were about the 6th or 7th car in line. They were very strict about not letting any cars in until 4:00pm. This is because they are still trying to clear out the prior campers.

Campsites are Here.

The spots may look small, but we can get many tents onto each one so don't worry too much about space. Love thy neighbor! :-)
We will not be assigned spots until we get there this year.

There will be carts at the Unloading Zone that you can use to transport your stuff to your camp site.

We will bring one fire ring and they have a couple of old beat-up washbin fireplaces that we can probably snag so we should be good. If you absolutely want to be sure to have a camp fire and have a portable fire ring and have the room for one, bring it!

There may not be much room for shade but if you've got it, it would be wise to at least pack it!

Unload Here.

They will make you unload and drop all your stuff in one spot and then make you go move your car before taking your stuff to the beach. This allows for more cars to unload at a faster rate.
